

Queensland Indigenous Family Violence Legal Service

Mission Statement

Address domestic and family violence and sexual assault of women, children and men by providing free legal and support services through casework and more broadly through community education, law reform and advocacy.

Ensuring services are reflective of the cultural values of each community.